The greater part of yesterday afternoon's session in the district court was taken up with examination and cross-examination of Mark H. Page, superintendent of the Manhattan Consolidated, a witness for the defense.

This morning William H. Hart, superintendent of the Morning Glory, and O. McCrany, superintendent of the White Caps, were recalled to the stand. The case then rested and argument began. Mr. Hoyt first appeared for the defense; followed by Judge Hatch for the plaintiff. The concluding argument will be made by Mr. Cooke. It is almost certain that the case will be submitted this evening, as Judge Averill has arranged to leave tomorrow morning for Ploche to hold court for Judge Horsey.

AMUSEMENTS

DUSTIN FARNUM AND TOM MIX AT THE BUTLER.

A double, seven-reel program will be the attraction at the Butler today—Dustin Farnum, in his first special feature under the Fox banner, entitled "Durand of the Bad Lands," and Tom Mix, the dare devil cowboy, in a two-reel Fox comedy, entitled "Tom and Jerry Mix," making a program which for amusement purposes can be classed as 100 per cent perfect.

From an outlaw, with a price upon his head, to a 100 per cent citizen is the character portrayed by Dustin Farnum, the famous star of stage and screen. In this screen drama Mr. Farnum shows all the virile energy for which he is so well known. His portrayal of the bad side of Dick Durand's character is the best he has done, and he shows the man's softer, nobler instincts with that care free, rollicking, laughing disposition that has made him a favorite wherever he has appeared. He saves three kids from Indians who massacre everyone else in the settlement. He is blamed for the killings, is caught, tried and convicted. But the governor, whose daughter he has saved, pardons him. Long before he had fallen in love and the girl's fondness for him turns him into an A-No. 1 man. It is a picture that will touch your heart—that will make you love and respect the character portrayed by this finished actor.

The other feature is entirely different. It will make you laugh. It will also make you hold your breath and grip your seat to witness some of the dare devil horseback stunts introduced by Tom Mix, the premier cowboy of the screen.

Tomorrow, Bessie Barriscale, in "Hater of Men," and "Dad's Down-fall," a Triangle comedy. Look for "The Fighting Trail" and Charles Ray in "The Pinch Hitter," in a double bill next week.

PORK IS CHEAPER.
